

ACG

Advancing the Legacy

ANNUAL REPORT 2014

BOARD CHAIR'S MESSAGE

It is an honor to continue my family's decades long association with The American College of Greece by following in the Board leadership and service of my father, Tom (1981–1991, chair 1985–1991), mother, Joy (1991–1996), sister, Ann (1997–2006), uncle, Mike (2004–2013), and a few cousins, including George Bapis (1988–1991, chair 1991–2003).

While the opportunity to further my family's Greek American heritage is a motivating factor for this long-standing involvement, our devotion to the ACG cause has other deep roots. We believe strongly in the importance of outstanding education and through ACG we are able to provide students from Greece, southeastern Europe, and elsewhere the strength and benefits of proven American education. The unique histories and achievements of Greece and The American College of Greece add to the privilege of working with the dedicated and talented trustees, College leadership, faculty, staff, students, alumni, friends, and others who advance ACG's distinctive mission and vision. This 2014 Annual Report makes clear the College's positive momentum brought about by these constituencies.

It continues to be a personal pleasure to be associated with one of the strongest and most stable enterprises in Greece during these changing times. On behalf of my family and the Board of Trustees, I cordially invite you to join us in building ACG's exciting future serving our students, Greece, the region, and the world.

Philip C. Korologos

*Chair, Board of Trustees
The American College of Greece*

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This 2014 Annual Report of The American College of Greece has three primary objectives:

1. Present the recent developments of The American College of Greece in the context of the College's Strategic Plan – ACG 150 ... Advancing the Legacy
2. Clarify the non-profit governance philosophy of the College – an approach that is prevalent in the US but less familiar in Greece
3. Acknowledge and thank all those who have contributed to ACG's positive momentum

This year marks my 31st year as a college/university president; I know well that institution-building is a collaborative process (sometimes I refer to it as collaborative art). Beginning with internal constituents (board, faculty, staff, students) and extending to external constituents (alumni, friends, corporations, foundations, public officials), collective effort is necessary to lift an educational institution. ACG's accomplishments presented in this report are testimony to precisely this collective investment.

I want to express particular appreciation to my closest associates – members of the President's Cabinet.

- Gabriel Alexopoulos, Controller
- Dimitris Andreou, Vice President, Enrollment and Administration
- Niki Boutari, Vice President, Marketing
- Claudia Carydis, Vice President, Public Affairs
- Olga Julius, Principal, PIERCE
- Iliana Lazana, Vice President Human Resources and Campus Services
- Kelly Morra, Vice President, Finance/CFO
- Nikolaos Travlos, Dean, ALBA Graduate Business School at The American College of Greece
- Thimios Zaharopoulos, Provost

I am continuously inspired by ACG's history and grateful to all those who helped create the impressive institution I joined in 2008 (especially those who served with my immediate predecessor, Chancellor Emeritus, John S. Bailey). I am encouraged to be able to project an era of significantly expanded personal and social contribution for the College, and I hope that bright future will be a "point of light" for others as well.

David G. Horner, PhD

OTHER FY2014 FINANCE HIGHLIGHTS

- DEREE Guarantee: undergraduate tuition guaranteed for four years
- PIERCE and DEREЕ on-line credit card payment – zero interest monthly installment option
- Grant Thornton named institutional auditor; financial audit completed in October 2014 – unqualified opinion, no material, internal controls findings
- ACG endowment/reserve portfolio, overseen by the Board of Trustees Investment Committee, ended FY14 with net (realized & unrealized) gains of 9.9%. Support for ACG operations in FY14 from endowment/reserve funds totaled €4.798 M (i.e. 3.2% draw on the three-year endowment/reserve average balance of approximately €150M).
- ACG economic impact:
  - Employment: 604 full-time equivalent direct and outsourced positions
  - Largest non-government employer in Aghia Paraskevi
  - Among 300 largest employers in Greece
  - IKA taxes paid: €3.744M
  - Total economic impact estimate: €50M

Instruction, student services and student financial aid account for 59% of ACG operating expenses.

We envision 2015 as another year of development as ACG contributes in ever expanding ways to the lives of our students, Greece, American education, Hellenic heritage, and the global community. Specific priorities include:

- 1. Response to Greece Political Developments: National political and economic developments will set the macro-environmental context for the College as they have since 2008.
- 2. Accreditation and Validation: ACG is committed to rigorous, independent review of all operations. We will prepare a comprehensive report to support the ten-year accrediting visit of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) as well as complete the Open University re-validation process for all undergraduate degree programs.
- 3. Enrollment Management: We will expand student recruitment efforts in Greece and internationally with an emphasis on student quality.
- 4. ACG/ALBA Integration: We will continue to seek ways to realize the near-term and long-term potential from this unique partnership.
- 5. DERE Academic Affairs: Key academic projects will include a revised Liberal Education curriculum (completed by all undergraduates), pilot testing the new faculty evaluation process and finalization of the Faculty Manual.
- 6. International Baccalaureate Recommendation: PIERCE is exploring adding the International Baccalaureate (IB) to its curriculum; an IB proposal / recommendation will be submitted to the board of trustees.
- 7. Institutional Partnerships: Opportunities for enriching partnerships continue to expand; we project the launch of several, new, strategic affiliations.
- 8. Development and Alumni Relations: We will complete the first year in the board-approved, multi-year plan for enhancing the College's Office of Development and Alumni Relations.
- 9. New ACG Identity System: Results from several marketing research studies in 2014 highlighted the ongoing challenge of communicating ACG's identity. The College's marketing department is developing proposals, assisted by an internationally renowned agency, to address this challenge.
- 10. Employment Engagement Survey Follow-up: We have worked collegially with PIERCE and DERE faculty over the past two years to revise our evaluation, promotion and compensation systems. A major assessment for ACG staff will be completed, leading to a new, comprehensive staff system.
- 11. Campus Planning: ACG's growth has produced inevitable (very desirable) challenges around providing necessary spaces for academic, co-curricular and other programs and services. We will confirm new campus plans to address these challenges.
- 12. 2025 Targets: ACG's Strategic Plan points towards the historic milestone of the College turning 150 in 2025. As we approach the ten-year time horizon to 2025, we will confirm various elements of the preferred/projected 2025 ACG profile.
